

I'm writing to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air a biased
anti-John Kerry
"documentary" days
before the November Presidential
election

Sinclair's decision
is grossly unfair
and a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.
Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, not the special interests of one group or political party. At the very least,
Sinclair needs to give the Kerry
campaign equal time.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
actions show why we need to strengthen
media ownership
rules, not weaken
them.
